COLLECTION

 FEELYSTONE SINCE 1780
PREFERRED CRAFTSMEN OF NATURE

For over 240 years the Feely family have been working as stone masons in the heart of the Irish countryside. The skills that we have perfected are handed down from generation to generation, enabling us to produce monuments of lasting beauty. Exclusive designs, the unique Celtic character of our monuments and the consummate skill with which they are created are the hallmarks of Feelystone. From design concept to finished article, our monuments are a testament to the fine skills of a stonemason. The range of quality stone memorials shown here are interchangeable in colour and design. We will be delighted to discuss and design a memorial to your personal needs.
